

Dear Parents,

The CSPC Home and School Association has some exciting news to share! This year two CSPC families will be given the opportunity to win one year of free tuition for their child. How do you win free tuition? The Home and School Association is sponsoring a volunteer program. For every ten hours of service someone volunteers to the school, their family will receive one service coupon to be included in the Volunteer Program raffle. Anyone can volunteer on behalf of your family (parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, friends, etc.), and volunteer hours are unlimited. The more hours one volunteers, the more chances to win free tuition!

The rules are quite simple. Coupons will be distributed based on the honor system. Both of the high school and elementary offices, business office, teachers, and the school website have copies of the Volunteer Program form. If downloading the form, complete and return to school in an envelope addressed to Home and School Volunteer Program. If you are volunteering your time on campus, do not forget to sign in with the office. The following are examples of ways to volunteer for CSPC:

Daily parent volunteer program	Concessions
Bake birthday cakes for teachers	Sell admission to athletic events
Attend School board meetings	Attend Home and School meetings
Attend Green Hornet meetings	Fall Festival
Substitute teaching teacher birthday	Ladies Auction

Anything that you do as a volunteer for CSPC counts towards hours! The drawing for tuition will be held April 1, 2010. All hours earned after that date will count for the next school year. If you are a full time teacher, paraprofessional, Home and School officer, Green Hornet officer, or school board member, you automatically receive ten hours of volunteer credit. Thank you for all that you do for CSPC. Come out and support your school! For questions regarding the Parent Volunteer Program please call 225-718-3146 or email marybethguerier@hotmail.com

Sincerely,
